ORDER:

It has come to the notice of the Government that in respect of some state cadre employees who are working in connection with the affairs of the successor state of Andhra Pradesh under Section 77(1) and are finally allotted to the successor states of Telangana under Section 77(2) of the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2014, some difficulty will be experienced in recovery of outstanding loans and advances to be repaid to the Government of Andhra Pradesh, due to their allotment to the State of Telangana. Similar difficulty is also experienced in the state of Telangana also in respect of those employees allotted to the State of Andhra Pradesh.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Government of Telangana has proposed to continue to effect the recovery of the outstanding loans and advances at the new locations and adjust the amounts so recovered through interstate suspense account. The Government of Telangana has also proposed that any arrears of pay and allowances for the period of service rendered in one successor state may be recovered in the other successor state and adjusted through interstate suspense account.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby accept the proposal of the Government of Telangana and hereby order that:

(i) All outstanding loans and advancesdrawn by the Government employee as on the date of his relief on final allocation shall be recorded in the LPC and the same amount be recovered by the other Government and adjusted through Interstate suspense account to Government which had advanced such loans, so that the monthly recovery of instalments can be retained by the Government which effects recovery.

(ii) Any arrears of salary or allowances, for the period of service rendered in Andhra Pradesh before final allocation of the Government servant to the State of Telangana shall be paid by Government of Telangana or vice – versa and the amounts so paid shall be adjusted through interstate suspense account.

4. All the Secretariat Departments and the Heads of departments shall follow the above instructions and communicate these instructions to the subordinate offices under their control for strict adherence.

5. These instructions are available in the Andhra Pradesh Government Website http://goir.ap.gov.in
